AN INTERESTING SAVINGS BANK RECORD

Any system or method of doing business which varies much from that followed by others engaged in the same line, is always watched with eager interest. The scheme of banking used so successfully by the Hyde Park Savings Bank is so different from that of the other banks in the State, that it is found especially interesting. The Brattleboro Reformer says:

"It is interesting to note the progress of this institution because of the fact that all its funds are invested in Vermont and it has never lost a dollar by a poor note."

This Bank pays 4 per cent. compounded semi-annually on deposits of $100 or more.

SLAIN WOMAN'S BOYS IN THEIR FATHER'S ARMS.

Affecting Scene When Lieut. Rorschach Reached Portsmouth and Clashed His Motherless Lads.

Norfolk, Sept. 13.—Lieut. Frank Rorschach of the cruiser Tennessee, now at Boston, whose wife was murdered by a burglar, has arrived at his home in Portsmouth. There was an affecting scene when the bereaved officer met and clasped in his arms his two motherless boys, Frank, eight years old, and Lawrence, aged five.

Three negroes are now under arrest in connection with the crime. Thomas Archer, Horace Lee and William Shields. The latter is reported to have said that he was with "the white man who killed the lady."

Matters look bad for Archer, according to the police. Mrs. Quintin T. Overman declares that she was looking from her window when a man running from the direction of the Rorschach home, passed her house. She watched the retreating figure until it reached a foot-bridge over Scott's creek. An arch light on the bridge made the man's movements plainly visible, but Mrs. Overman says that she thought he was white. Archer is a very light mulatto.

It was only a few moments later when a policeman on the watch in a negro quarter for the murderer saw Archer enter his home and arrested him. The negro's clothing was found to be wet. An expert in leather says that Archer's shoes had been soaked in salt water. A chemist is examining two spots on Archer's hat which may be blood, but which the prisoner says is paint.

Archer was formerly in the navy, and knew the time of the month when naval men sent money to their wives. Mrs. Rorschach had just received a remittance from her husband.

Campus Bears.

The members of the track team that went to the Jamestown Exposition to represent California were assembled on the front porch of the Olympic club the other morning preparatory to their departure, when Gerhart, one of the sprinters, glancing down over the barren and grassless slopes of Jefferson square, only recently stripped of its refugee cottages, remarked: "That'll be a bare park for a long time now."

"Will it, sure?" asked Andy Gutter, innocently. "Then they'll have to put a high iron fence around it. Because when I was a boy in Paris they had only a wire fence, and the bear got away."

"But this is a real California bear, Andy, and it'll stay right there till it rains," asserted Gerhart.

"Is that right, Mr. Christie?" inquired Gutter of the trainer.

"Oh, yes," assured Walter Christie. "That's the kind of bear we have on the hills back of the campus. But a good many of the professors complain there's a bare living in Berkeley."—San Francisco Chronicle.

John L. Bassett of Island Pond is held in Montreal to answer to the charge of horse stealing. It is alleged that he secured a true bill against William Fairbanks last night. Fairbanks shot and killed his niece, Mrs. Mary Groat, at Saxtons River May 25 and then attempted suicide, and was in the hospital in Brattleboro several weeks.

Several other matters were investigated by the grand jury yesterday. One was the disappearance of receipts and papers from E. J. Fenton's desk in Mr. Fenton's store in Brattleboro. The receipts turned up at the taking of the deposition of Mr. Fenton in the libel suit of Fred C. Gale against John H. Albin, of Concord, in Brattleboro recently. General Albin, William H. Sawyer of Concord, General Albin's law partner, and E. W. Smith of Wells River, counsel for General Albin, were before the grand jury yesterday to tell what they knew about the matter. Witnesses also were examined in the case of the state against Fred C. Gale, for whose arrest on the charge of selling liquor illegally in Vermont a warrant was issued recently.

YOUNG WIFE DROWNED.

Knocked Overboard From Yacht While Eating Dinner.

Philadelphia, Sept. 13.—John Croft of New York lost his young bride last night while the pair were returning on the yacht M. H. E. as guests of C. F. M. Bennett of this city from the Jamestown Exposition. The yacht was in the Delaware river off Greenwich Point, Camden, when a squall struck her, tearing away the masts and rigging and causing the boom to swing around with great force, so that it struck Mrs. Croft, who was eating dinner seated opposite her husband on the deck. She was swept into the river and did not rise again.

Croft at once sprang over board and swam about in a vain effort to find his wife. He struck out first for one point then another, calling for her.

Mr. Bennett had been lowered, but the crew had to wait until Croft was helpless in the water, as he refused to leave the river unless he found his bride. Once back on the yacht, it was found necessary at times to restrain him by force to prevent his again jumping into the river. Physicians who were called to attend him expressed some fear that the grief of the man should result in his losing his mind.

Search was kept up all night for Mrs. Croft's body, but without avail.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is in Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many laborers may look nice and small, nice, but the point is do they eat? Do they draft and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease. Sold by leading druggists. Send for it at once for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Two steams—60 cents and $1.00.
E. A. Brown, Special Agent.

A TRUE BILL FOUND.

William Fairbanks to Be Tried For Murder of Mrs. Mary Groat.

Brattleboro, Sept. 13.—The grand jury at Windham county court at Newfane found a true bill against William Fairbanks last night. Fairbanks shot and killed his niece, Mrs. Mary Groat, at Saxtons River May 25 and then attempted suicide, and was in the hospital in Brattleboro several weeks.
